

National Preservation Institute

P.O. Box 1702 Alexandria, VA 22313-1702 703.765.0100 info@npi.org www.npi.org

John J. Cullinane, AIA

Contact Information:

John Cullinane Architect, LLC
428 Ben Oaks Drive West, Severna Park, MD 21146
410.903.0256, jcullinane@jcaaia.com

Education:

University of Florida, Architecture, 1961; Cosanti Foundation, City Planning, 1965

Experience:

Engaged in private architectural practice since 1966, John Cullinane has designed structures and projects throughout the country, ranging from individual rehabilitation projects to multi-resource masterplans.

Historic architect and director of training, SEARCH Inc., 2012-present. Leads efforts in addressing built cultural resources. Projects include a cultural landscape survey at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, SC; reuse and economic analysis of WWII test facilities, Eglin AFB, FL; and treatment and use alternatives for a WWII Dependents' Hospital, Naval Station Great Lakes Training Center, IL.

President, John Cullinane Associates, LLC, Architects Engineers & Preservation Planners, 1992-2012, a full-service architectural firm specializing in historic preservation. Projects included working with federal agencies and private industry to develop techniques for retrofitting historic building systems; creating historic preservation plans for federal installations, hydroelectric facilities, and local historic districts; creating integrated administrative and resource maintenance training programs; and developing life-cycle cost analysis programs for long-term maintenance planning.

Senior architect, Advisory Council on Historic Preservation, 1976-1992. Responsibilities included planning and design consultations with federal agencies, cities, state governments, and private developers on federally assisted projects affecting significant properties and seeking solutions to economic, social, cultural, and architectural issues on specific projects or broad programs.

Founder/executive director, Preservation Alliance of Louisville and Jefferson County, Inc., 1973-1976; past chairman, Architectural Advisory Board, City of Falls Church, VA; member, National Committee on Historic Resources, American Institute of Architects, 1972-present, and chairman, 1977; Kentucky State Preservation coordinator, AIA, 1972-1976; National Institute for Conservation, 1982-present.

Teaching:

National Preservation Institute: Contextual Design, Cultural Resource Management Plans, The Secretary of the Interior's Standards: Treatment Considerations; U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Prospect Course: Repair and Maintenance of Historic Structures; The American Institute of Architects; American Institute of Planners; Victorian Society of America; University of Florida, Preservation Institute; and other universities

Selected Publications:

Maintaining and Repairing Old and Historic Buildings, John Wiley & Sons, 2013. "CRM Planning at Two Service Academies," CRM, U.S. Dept. of the Interior, National Park Service, November 1997. Understanding Architectural Drawings—A Guide for Non-Architects, The Preservation Press, 1993. "Arbiter of Taste—The Architect's Role in the Preservation Review Process," American Institute of Architects, 1990. Alexandria Virginia—Contextual Design, JCA, 1988.