

National Preservation Institute

P.O. Box 1702 Alexandria, VA 22313-1702 703.765.0100 info@npi.org www.npi.org

Mary Anne Kenworthy

Contact Information:

Department of Interior, Office of the Solicitor, Pacific Northwest Region
805 SW Broadway, Suite 600, Portland, OR 97205
503.231.2121, mary.anne.kenworthy@sol.doi.gov

Education:

J.D., University of Oregon School of Law, 1990; member of the Alaska and Oregon bar associations
Graduate courses in archaeology and anthropology
B.A., Cum Laude, anthropology, Fordham University, 1980

Experience:

Attorney with the Solicitor's Office, Department of Interior, 1997-present, for six years in the Division of Indian Affairs, Washington, DC, and now located in the Regional Solicitor's Office, Portland, OR. Ms. Kenworthy specializes in Indian law and works on cases and issues concerning Indian lands and trust resources, timber trespass, rights-of-way, and cultural resources issues. She has provided training throughout the country to tribes, law enforcement personnel, and other federal agencies on the implementation and prosecution of violations under the Archaeological Resources Protection Act and the Native American Graves Protection Act.

Attorney, Alaska Legal Services Corporation, Anchorage, AK, 1990-1997. Ms. Kenworthy represented individual Native allottees in administrative hearings and in federal court over their claim to land. She also represented the Chilkat Indian Village in tribal court in its successful attempt to have the Whale House posts returned to the village, published at 20 IND. L. REP. 6127 in 1995.

Photographic archivist, University Museum, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA.